CARL PRESTON OGLESBY, JR.

A source advised on December 16, 1968 that an announcement was made at a meeting of the University of Colorado Chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) on December 16, 1968 that five SDS members expected to travel to Cuba on or about January 1, 1969, and that one of these SDS members was Carl Oglesby. According to the announcement, Oglesby has an arrangement with Time-Life Publications to the effect that if any of the material written by Oglesby is utilized by these publications, Oglesby will receive approximately fifteen hundred dollars. Oglesby reportedly was willing to use this money for his own expenses and for the expenses of other SDS members who were making this trip.

A second source advised on January 3, 1969 that on December 30, 1968 [redacted] a member of Newsreel, said that Carl Oglesby is in Cuba for a stay of two weeks and was on an assignment from Life magazine. There is a possibility that Oglesby might stay longer than the middle of January 1969.

b7C

The second source further advised that Oglesby currently lives at 1268 Vermont Street, San Francisco, California, and is employed as a writer and as a consultant editor to "Ramparts" magazine.

"Ramparts" in a letter to subscribers dated May 1, 1968, announced that beginning June 1, 1968, it would be published biweekly at a yearly subscription price of $15.00. In this letter, "Ramparts" described itself as follows: "...the first national publication to consistently reveal the ribbon of lies supporting America's involvement in Vietnam; we stripped the curtain from America's 'invisible government' by exposing CIA's unlicensed intrusion into our domestic lives; we dared to write about the applications Catholic Church's political power; we warned, years before the Kerner report, that white racism was the base of America's racial problems; we blasted away at the corroded institutions of Cold War liberalism.

" 'Ramparts' is now the largest left-of-center commercial magazine in the history of the United States..."

A third source advised in 1966 that during the period from June 1965 through August 1966, Oglesby was president of the SDS organization which maintained headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. During that time, Oglesby was in almost constant travel status throughout the United States and abroad, making appearances for SDS.

A fourth confidential source has described Oglesby as an atheist and a socialist and he is completely sincere to his dedication toward the principles of SDS. Oglesby undertook a severe financial sacrifice in resigning regular employment to assume the SDS presidency.

At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A "benefit" for the "Guardian" (Radical newspaper) was held tonight. It was supposed to start at 8 p.m., but with each person entering being "searched" (and searched very inefficiently) before being allowed to enter...supposedly as a protection method for H. RAP BROWN. The theatre was totally sold out, with an estimated 200-300 outside, listening to an extension loudspeaker. Among those noted there: MARK RUDD, JEAN YONEMURA, GUS REICHBACH, TED WAGNER, HANK GEHMAN, NADIA WILS, SIDNEY ROSS, JUAN GONZALEZ, SUZIE STERN, ANN SOMMERFELD, STEVE HALLOWELL, CAROLLA HOFFMAN, JOSIE DUKE, and DIONNE. The Columbia SDS Street Theatre put on a performance of their 1st production. PETE SEEGER sang two songs; and later, during the $collection, sang another. BERNADINE DORN of Nat'l SDS was the Master-of-Ceremonies, introducing each speaker. It was not really feasible to take notes therefore this report will necessarily be incomplete. The 1st speaker was CARL OGLESBY who praised the New Left, as did 2nd speaker, HERBERT MARCUSE. BILL ROSE appealed for $ as did an aged Afro-American named "CONRAD" (who is apparently the Lawyer for the Guardian). (Possibly I misunderstood the name - could he be "WILFRED BURCHETTE"?). An Afro-American Street Theatre Group from Harlem put on a short play attacking the police "Pigs". Then the aisles were cleared and H. RAP BROWN spoke for a short time, stating that he would tolerate no interruptions or noisy comments or hissing from anyone. Naturally, after about 5 minutes, someone yelled something and BROWN left the stage in a huff. The benefit was then declared ended. "Arrogance" was BROWN's watchword.

BOB KIRKMAN was a visitor at the meeting this evening and the featured speaker. He stated that he and MARK RUDD were the principals that went to a recent meeting in conjunction with the Black Panthers and other left groups. The purpose of the meeting was for planning a demonstration to be held 5/1/69. He stated that he and RUDD could not handle the meeting. He also announced a planned demonstration for 5/12/69 which will be participated in by MDS, SDS and the Black Panthers with the Citywide Committee of Welfare Groups being the sponsors. The plans are not definite but it may take place at the old treasury building in the Wall St. area. KIRKMAN wants certain demands to be voiced at this demonstration, such as no welfare cuts, community control of welfare, release of all political prisoners and stop the war in Vietnam.

It was stated that [redacted] is recovering politically and becoming more radical. The CDS wants to win her over through contact with the SDS who will handle this assignment.

b7C

It was stated that SDS, MDS, the Black Panthers and Citywide would hold a meeting 4/28/69 on 126th St. between Broadway and Amsterdam. Citywide is to have another meeting with various groups at Academy Hall on 4/29/69 at 7:30 PM. It was stated that [redacted] has quit the Citywide and they don't know who is taking his place. MDS is to encourage disruption of all liberal speakers that try to speak at Citywide meetings or demonstrations.

On 4/30/69, Citywide will sponsor a rally at 7:30 PM at St. Johns Church in Brooklyn. It was stated that their regular meetings are held on Wednesday nights. MDS has been invited to attend and participate in the functions scheduled on 4/28, 4/29 and 4/30/69.

The Black Panthers are seeking broad based support from the New Left. They need it for self preservation. They want to work with both SDS and MDS in this regard. They, in addition, want welfare counselling by the CDS group.

Citywide is planning a demonstration on 7/1/69 in which SDS, MDS and the Black Panthers are to participate. This is to take the form of a rally against welfare cuts. However, no further details were announced.

Last Friday at the Ford plant in Mahwah, NJ, where a strike by some Negro workers is presently taking place, according to KIRKMAN, there were about 75 members from SDS in NY present. KIRKMAN said that the mostly black strikers had asked SDS Regional to send some people to talk to them.

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

This was the reason for their presence there last Friday. KIRKMAN wanted MDS to send some people to work with some SDS people at the Ford plant on the morning of 4/28/69 to help the strikers in their demonstration [redacted]

b6

[redacted] and [redacted] agreed to go and take part.

It was stated that [redacted] is to get together with some people from the MPIPR to work with a Lower East Side group. [redacted] stated that the MDS has not become a formal part of the Lower East Side Defense Committee but it can offer support.

On this date, the Law Commune had a formal display of propaganda emanating from their group as well as from others. According to [redacted] the Law Commune is the center of The Movement's Legal Defense.

There was a note on the bulletin board concerning a high school radical group with the High School Student Union, telephone 799-2020. [redacted] name

CDS is to print a paper with the caption "How to Get on Welfare". [redacted] prepared this paper with help from [redacted]. It is to be distributed particularly to the Black Panthers and any other interested radical groups.

b7C

A national organization of social workers is to hold a convention in NYC on 5/25-29/69 at the New York Hilton Hotel. [redacted] is working on plans to disrupt this affair on behalf of MDS. Other radicals in the organization with MDS leadership are going to try to take over the convention physically. According to [redacted] they are going to try to get CARL OGLESBY to speak after the takeover. [redacted] and others connected with plans for this disruption are to hold a meeting at the residence of [redacted] on 4/30/69.

Edward J. Hyman

On August 11, 1969, a confidential source who was in a position to furnish reliable information, made available a letter dated July 25, 1969, from Edward Hyman, Brookline, New Hampshire to Joe Dubovy, Editor of the publication "Radical Digest", 516 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York.

A xerox copy of above letter is attached hereto.

It is noted that letter is written on the stationery of the Experimental Broadcasting Laboratory, Brookline, New Hampshire which reflects that Edward J. Hyman and James L. Auchincloss are among the officers of the project.

Source stated the Experimental Broadcasting Laboratory was recently established by Hyman to become a "radical radio station" and has been in part financed by Auchincloss, described as the son of wealthy, socially prominent family.

Source stated that the activities of Hyman at Brookline, New Hampshire have attracted the interest of some right-wing groups in the area. In recent weeks Hyman indicated he had purchased a rifle and ammunition for "self-protection"

Letter sets forth Hyman's comments concerning the National Convention of the Students For A Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois in June, 1969, and indicates he, Rennie, Ogelsby and Jerry Rubin were talking of establishing another organization.

Source identified these persons as Carl Ogelsby, one of the original founders of SDS, Rennie Davis, as a national officer of the National Mobilization Committee To End The War In Vietnam and Jerry Rubin, a self-proclaimed "revolutionary".

Edward Hyman was known to the source as a member of SDS at Columbia University, New York, New York in 1968.

SDS is characterized in the appendix attached hereto.

b6
b7C

I'm left bewildered by the recent SDS split since neither faction seems to represent either in word or action the libertarian origins of the organization. Rennie Davis and I went to see a movie rather than attend the last day of the Convention.

There is some talk among Rennie, Ogelsby, Jerry Rubin and myself of establishing another organization. But at this point it has gone no further than the level of talk, and we would like it kept quiet.

Raya Dunayevskaya, of News and Letters in Detroit, wrote a beautiful analysis of the situation. I commend the article to you. (She, by the way, is Trotsky's former secretary!). She also wrote a really beautiful book, Marxism and Freedom.

[redacted] I would like to receive some back copies of Radical Digest, and also receive a subscription. As soon as we have some bread, we'll forward some.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~APPENDIX1.STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. From an initial ideological posture of "participatory democracy," the current line of the national leadership reveals an adherence to Marxism-Leninism. Michael Klonsky, National Secretary, in March, 1969, called for the building of a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist movement. The program of SDS has moved from involvement in civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war position and finally to its present advocacy of an anti-imperialist line, linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as countries which are leading the worldwide struggles against United States imperialism. On the other hand, SDS regards the Soviet Union as an imperialist power and does not support the policies of that country.

SDS maintains a National Office in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. Its official paper "New Left Notes" reflects the line of the national leadership and program adopted at meetings of the National Council and National Interim Committee (NIC). Three national officers and a NIC of eleven members are elected each year during a June National Convention.

SDS Regional Offices and university and college chapters elect delegates to National Council meetings wherein program and ideology are debated, but each Region and chapter is autonomous in nature and is free to carry out independent policy and programs reflective of local conditions.
